

The background of the top section is a photograph of the Malmö Turning Torso skyscraper, a distinctive twisted tower, situated on a waterfront. The sky is a mix of blue and light orange, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The water in the foreground is dark and calm.

Malmö Work Life Symposium

20th May 2025

The Centre for Work Life and Evaluation Studies (CTA) invites you to Malmö for a one-day symposium where the latest findings on the work environment of human service workers are discussed and applied. This unique event will offer valuable opportunities for interdisciplinary networking and foster discussions bridging research and practical applications.

Conference Theme: Overcoming Challenges in Human-Service Organizations: Strengthening the Social and Organizational Work Environment

The program includes keynote lectures from professors Maureen Dollard, Jari Hakanen, Hugo Westerlund and senior researcher Thomas Clausen, as well as presentations covering a decade of CTAs research.

Participants are invited to present their research in the form of posters.
For further information please visit the conference website

Participation, incl. coffee and lunch, is free of charge, but registration is compulsory.
In case of cancellation later than 12 of May or a no show, a fee of 500 SEK will be charged.

We look forward to welcoming you in Malmö

The Conference Organising Committee – Malmö Work Life Symposium

You can follow CTA on LinkedIn