

4th International COPSOQ Workshop

Gent

September 19th – 20th, 2013

4th International Workshop on the Copenhagen Psychosocial Questionnaire – COPSOQ

Gent, September 19th – 20th, 2013

Organization

The workshop is organized by Securex Occupational Health Service and the Department of Public Health of the Ghent University, on behalf of the COPSOQ International Network

Contact

Philippe Kiss philippe.kiss@securex.be +32 474 410 175
Marc De Meester marc.de.meester@securex.be +32 474 93 93 62

Workshop venue

Monasterium PoortAckere

Oude houtlei 56

9000 Gent, Belgium

T +32 9 269 22 10

<http://www.monasterium.be/index.php>

FINAL PROGRAM

Wednesday, September 18

Time	Who	Activity
18.30	Who is already there	Meeting at entrance Monasterium
18.45	Who is already there	Start walk historical center Gent
20.00 – 22.00	Who is already there	Reception Novicengang Pand, (address: Onderbergen 1)

Thursday, September 19

Time	Who	Content / Activity
08.30	PK / MDM	Practical issues
08.35	André Kruse, Belgium	Welcome address Securex
	André Kruse, Belgium	Use of the short COPSOQ version in the routine occupational health examination: a new project
09.00	Marc De Meester, Belgium	Comparison of the short and long versions of the COPSOQ II
09.15	Jian Li, China	Differential item functioning analyses of the Copenhagen Psychosocial Questionnaire across ten countries: the NEXT Study
09.35	Philippe Kiss, Belgium	Organizational social capital and health
09.50	Tage Kristensen, Denmark	Social capital at the workplace – how to succeed
10.10	All participants	Discussion
10.30		Coffee break
11.00	Emilie Dupret and Christine Bocéreau, France	COPSOQ in France: observed results according to the size of the company
11.30	Raluca Iordache and Viorica Petreanu, Romania	Assessment of the psychosocial environment in different work fields using the Romanian version of the COPSOQ
11.50	Hanne Bertelsen, Sweden	The outline of a 3-year COPSOQ validation project in Sweden
12.10	All participants	Discussion
12.30		Lunch “Kapittelzaal” – ground floor

Time	Who	Content / Activity
13.30	Thomas Clausen, Denmark	Moving on from COPSOQ II – a revised questionnaire on psychosocial work environment from NRCWE
14.00	Philip Riley, Australia and Christelle Devos, Belgium	Monitoring the occupational health, safety and wellbeing in Australian school principals using the COPSOQ-II
14.20	Hans-Joachim Lincke, Germany	Integration of COPSOQ scales and items in a study of the Federal Ministry of Labour on the quality of work in Germany
14.40	Juan Perez-Franco, Chili	Preliminary outcomes of a democratic participatory intervention program for psychosocial risk at work
15.00	All participants	Discussion
15.20		Coffee break
15.50	Salvador Moncada, Spain	Psychosocial exposures at work before and after the outbreak of the economic crisis among salaried workers in Spain (2005-2010)
16.05	Clara Llorens, Spain	A participative risk assessment process for COPSOQ questionnaire
16.20	Hermann Burr, Germany	Labour market position and depressive symptoms among German employees born in 1959 and 1965
16.35	Indika Pathiraja, Sri Lanka	Psychosocial correlates of burnout among Public Health Midwives
16.45	Hernan Camilo Pulido and Luz Mery Carvajal, Colombia	COPSOQ and political actions. Mapping the practice to understand the place of psychology
17.00	All participants	Discussion
17.20		End of work day
19.30	Optional	Workshop Dinner “Restaurant Pantheon” – Annonciadenstraat 2

Friday, September 20

Time	Who	Content / Activity
08.30	Gérard Näring, Netherlands	Always look on the bright side of work: COPSOQ & positive psychology
08.50	Uwe Rose, Germany	A taxonomy of psychosocial aspects in the working environment based on standardised assessment tools: concordance analyses and comparison with COPSOQ
09.05	Tage Kristensen, Denmark	If you want to improve the work environment, do not focus on the work environment
09.25	Matthias Nuebling, Hermann Burr and Salvador Moncada	Core contents of COPSOQ - what do people working with it say
10.30		Coffee break
11.00	All participants	Discussion on core content of COPSOQ, future plans
12.40	All participants	Rounding-up, next workshop, goodbye
13.00	Optional	Lunch “Kapittelzaal” – ground floor